

Christmas Greetings

SECOND EDITION

DECEMBER 1989

485th 1990 Reunion September 5-9

The 485th 1990 Reunion is revving up! 300 rooms have been blocked at the Dayton Stouffers Hotel from September 5 through 9. Rates will be $65.00 per day. Included in the package are hospitality rooms, memorabilia room and a large dining/ballroom. Hospitality rooms will be open every day. Indoor parking is connected to the hotel and the 24 hour rate is $2.00.

The centerpiece for our reunion of course will be the beautiful Air Force Museum. The 485th will get special recognition. We will get a conducted tour and combat films of the Big War will be shown in the theater. We will visit our memorial and have a special ceremony. A "fly by" has been requested. (Wish I could do it with a B-24!)

Plans are underway for an interesting ladies program. This may include a style show, visit to the Dayton Art Institute and other activities.

Arrangements will be made for R.V.'s, pet care, wheelchairs, etc.

I hope everyone is excited about having a memorable reunion at the Birthplace of Aviation!

The 828th will have a mini-reunion on September 4th, just to make sure we get off to a good start. Eat your hearts out 829th, 830th and 831st!!

IF YOU MEET SOMEONE NOT SMILING,

GIVE THEM ONE OF YOURS!

As the saying goes, tis the season to be jolly and I certainly hope that each of you are enjoying it to the fullest. It is now that we reflect back on our winter we spent in Italy, each one of us there has a story of the winter of 1944.

Time marches on and with our reunions and newsletter, we have kept in touch with many friends and have made lots of new ones with our yearly meetings.

This is the time of year when I reflect back on our days in Italy. It was a great experience, but we don't want to do it again.

Talking with our members at San Antonio, TX, many stayed in the military, others having become professional in fields of law, science, and have succeeded in business, along with many different trades.

I thought this v-mail Christmas greeting would bring back memories of 1944. This is from the Warren Mickles collection.

Here is a short poem that I received last year. I think it best fits in at this time.

*Each year we light a candle
Upon our Christmas tree
For all the friends we rarely write
And all too seldom see.*

*So now our tree is lighted
And shining like the sun
With the old time wish of Tiny Tim
"God bless us every one."*

Another reunion is history. I wish all of you could attend and see the fellowship these affairs bring out. At every reunion I've had veterans come up to me and say no one will remember me and as soon as I can find out what crew he was with or section, I've always been able to find a buddy that they know. It is a great feeling to see these old friends hugging and carrying on after so many years.

As always there were many early arrivals. Chet and Stella Konkolewski proved to be good hosts, they had our every need taken care of along with a great hospitality room with lots of snacks and refreshments. Thursday things got under way with registration, memorabilia room, golf, evening buffet dinner in the hotel. Friday there was the visit to Lackland AFB for a parade, tour and luncheon, and ending the day with a visit to the Lone Star brewery and another buffet. Saturday the membership meeting with picture taking with coat and tie; dinner banquet and lots of dancing. Sunday was our memorial breakfast with Colonel Curins and his grandson posting the colors.

Then it was good-byes to old friends. Many stayed over to do more visiting in the area.

Know Your Benefits

Many of you have requested help with buddy's and medical records. Here is an article that might help, also another way to find a lost buddy. If you know the state he lives in, check with their license bureau.

Enclosed is a fact sheet and a picture of our banner. We would like for all of you to put notices in your local papers, etc., to help find lost buddies. You can use one of your own snap shots or write your own story of your days in the 828th. Reporters will take care of nationally published magazines.

Helpful Hints to Locate Service Buddies and Military Doctors

Many disabled veterans could potentially get evidence to substantiate their claims if they could get in touch with former service buddies, officers or locate military physicians who treated them for their service-connected disabilities.

Unfortunately, the Privacy Act of 1974 prohibits the military services from releasing the name and address of former servicemen and women. However, each of the military services operates a Locator Office, which will address and forward correspondence.

Here's how to do it. Address one stamped envelope with the name and grade of your service buddy, include your return address, and insert in another stamped envelope addressed to the military locator. It's also a good idea to include a data sheet with as much information about your friend's service background, duty stations, schooling, etc. This makes it easier to track down an individual when more than one name appears in the military files. Send your correspondence to:

Army-HQDA-DAAG-PSR, Alexandria, Virginia 22331

Navy-USN (NMPC-641E), Washington, D.C. 20370

Air Force-AFMPC/D003), Randolph AFB, Texas 78150

Marine Corps-HQ, USMC (MSRB-13), Washington, D.C. 20380

Coast Guard-HQ, USCG (G-PS-1), Washington, D.C. 20593 - or -

National Personnel Records Center, 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, Missouri 63132.

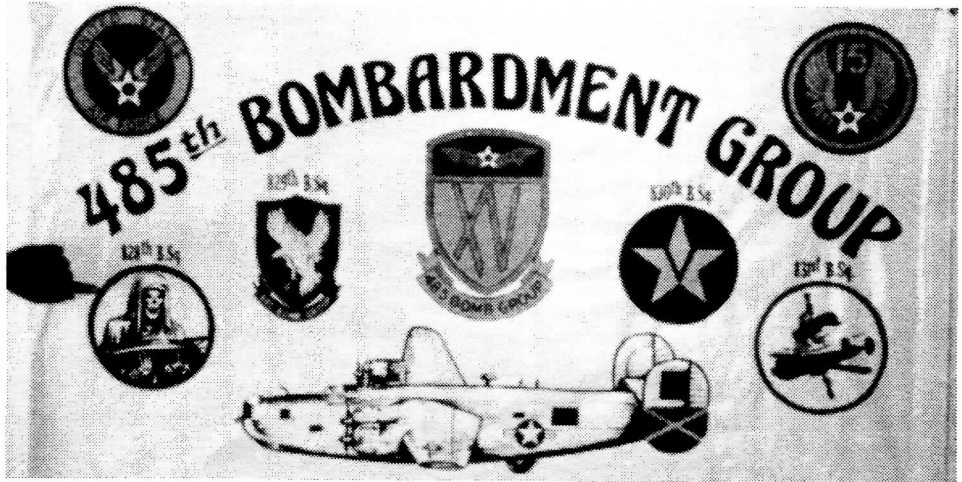

Two medical directories, The Directory of Medical Specialists and The American Medical Directory, both list a doctor's medical specialty and type of practice.

The Directory of Medical Specialists also provides biographical information, such as military service, including a physician's service period, branch of military service, and former rank. Both directories usually can be found in large public libraries and in the medical libraries of hospitals.

Another source that disabled veterans might find useful in locating physicians who treated them for their service-connected disability is the American Medical Association's computer data file in Chicago. Veterans can request the address of a physician by writing to: Data Release, American Medical Association, 535 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60610.

Spring Outing

Had another outing this past spring in Wildwood, New Jersey, with Somers Corson as our host. We all checked into the Jolly Roger Motel for a three-day stay. The frolic got under way early in the Muriel and Warren Mickle room. Warren told us about our friend Larry Sullivan who had heart surgery. Latest report is that he is doing good.

We found two new people, John and Catherine Di-Russo, also Bud and JoAnn Sites. It was good to have friends Marty and Gloria and grandson, Jason, along with my buddy John Walsleyer.

The best two people I believe in the 828th. Ray and Mary Thayer. It was good to see Ray again. Ray helped me get down the hauls in Rochester.

Marty and Gloria with grandson Jason, Warren and Muriel Mickle, Bud Sites, John Walsleyer, Ray Thayer, John and Catherine DiRusso, and Bob Deeds. Jo Ann Sites took this picture.

Somers Corson is curator at Cape May museum. The 828th donated a picture of Life Liberator to their military room. Somers' home is on Route 9. It was once a stage coach tavern. He has made it into quite an historical attraction.

828th To Host Group

This is the year the 828th will once again be host to the group. Ed Nett and wife Jo will be our hosts; which will require a lot of jobs to be done. If you would like to help in some way, report on September fourth. We will need bartenders and ticket takers, etc., etc.

Some of you have asked about donations of gifts for door prizes. If you have something with 485th flavor, it will be appreciated.

Many of you know there are expenses to our mailroom. We have no fees, but donations are accepted; to those who have not helped, we can use it this year.

Buzzing the 828th

by Sgt. Larry Sullivan
and PFC Warren F. Mickle

Our squadron lost its first softball game last Tuesday, to a forfeit, and we had intended to write a very rending plea to the fellows to get out and lick the pants off their opponents; but after Thursday night's terrific steamroller defeat of the 830, 19-7, we feel too good to do anything except sing hosannahs. Keep it up, fellas; what say we show the other squadrons just who's what?...

Speaking of the latter game, on the way back, Cpl. Croushore was very industriously looking for a fourth base and PFC Boyer innocently inquired the reason. Replied Crouse of the wonderful wit, "Oh, I'm trying to find that extra base that Lt. Olson stole during the game!"... A very sad soul is Cpl. Harry May. The other day, the Corp, eager to take advatange of our new showers, dashed down, threw off his clothes, and soaped up. And of course, at that exact moment, the water had to run out...

T/Sgt. Charles McGinn, of Crew 6, tells us he's thinking of running for Mayor of Venosa. He's a pretty popular guy there and has quite a few souvenirs given to him by certain "natives"...

And now, before we sign off for this week, we'd like to wish Lt. Spicer, who's in the hospital, the speediest of recoveries....

Men from Massachusetts — 1944

Sad note: just been informed Warren Mickle passed away. We still hope to get together next spring in Massachusetts with Larry Sullivan and Fred Freyermuth. Here are a couple of snapshots of the Massachusetts gang. I could not identify all the kids in the 1944 picture.

Golfing at Lackland, Air Force Base

September 7, 1989

Participating were: Douglas and Lillian Cairns, Cliff Martin and Bunny MacAlpine, Roger Monroe, Art Hurley, Mike Kilbury, Bob Dietrich, Frank Gallagher, George and Janet Raidel, Mrs. Colleen Bell, Thomas McDowell, Robert Edinger, Marvin Lindsay, Roy Trautman, and Bill Fritz.

Everybody agreed that the course was not an easy course. Even though it was a hot day and the course is long and hilly, we all enjoyed the outing. Of course we had carts to ride and we got a shower from the fairway sprinklers to cool us down every few holes.

The women tee'd off first and remained well ahead of the pack, as they seemed to have less trouble than the men. Some of us men wandered off in the trees and sand traps too often.

I thought we lost Art Hurley in the trap on the 16th, but after a long time he appeared.

Roger Monroe, we figured out later, is the fastest man with the pencil. Although he claimed he was just having a good round of golf, you can imagine who ended up with all the money and has this year's bragging rights. Those of us who donated claim there's always next year, so watch out Roger!

IN MEMORIAM!

S/Sgt. Robert Waterson

Somewhere in Italy lies a soldier's grave,
Where, mid the white crosses, Old Glory will wave;
But in memories, we'll see him still,
There by the homeland weed and hill,
Travelling the paths that boyhood knew,
Mid scenes familiar, where to manhood he grew.
From the ranks of your comrades, this tribute we send,
A salute to the memory of a good soldier and friend.
